Three English Reporters and four Kannada Reporters were entertained in the R.A. and L.C. Office temporarily for a period of six months from 10th April 1941 under G.O. No.RL.3379-80/R.A.105-40-1 dated 29th March 1941. The term of these temporary Reporters were extended for a further period of six months under G.O. No.RL 939-41/R.A.105-40-10 dated 18-11-1941. The term of their appointment expires on 10th April 1942.

The entertainment of these additional hands was necessitated by the advent of the Constitutional Reforms in 1941 under the terms of the Government of Mysore Act, 1940, and the consequent increase of work in the R.A. & L.C. Office.

It is submitted that the continuance of these Reporters is ~~absolutely~~ necessary in view of the increase in work in this Office. They have also reported the proceedings of the Dasara Session of the Representative Assembly, 1941, and the session of the Legislative Council in December 1941 which are now under print, and they have to bring out these proceedings. The work connected with the ensuing Budget Sessions of the R.A. and the L.C. has already started and the entire office is having heavy work. These Reporters have already put in about one year's service and their term expires on 10-4-42.

For reasons stated above, the continuance of these appointments is necessary pending disposal of the
